Gentlemen:

I have a bronze plaque of discovery of Hudson River by Henry Hudson, Hudson Fulton celebration and would like to obtain the following information. How many of these were cast and what is the value of it today? If you have any literature on any bronze plaques, will appreciate if you will forward same to me.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

As there were a great many different medals and plaques issued during the Hudson Fulton celebration I cannot tell you anything about yours. If you could send us a description or a rubbing of it we might possibly be able to tell you something more about it.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

I am enclosing herewith a rubbing of the Hudson Fulton celebration as per your letter dated March 13th. If you can give me the information regarding this plaque, it will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Public Sale 2.00 each

March 19, 1936.

Mr. Max H. Sklar
133-145 Floyd St.
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

Your medal was issued for public sale by the Hudson Fulton Celebration Committee. Our Society had nothing to do with those struck in this size. I have gone through the records of the Committee and all that state about it was that it was put on public sale at $2.00 each. I cannot find anywhere a record of the number struck. The piece is not rare as we see one now and then. There is absolutely no demand for these medals and I very much doubt if you could get $2.00 for it today.

Very truly yours,
